An English country

paradise

Hidden away from the noise and chaos of the real world is your own little slice of Eden. Fall in love with the Yorkshire moorland, the fresh fragrant heather and the sound of the ocean crashing against the cliffs. Enjoy a spot of fishing or venture out to the moors for some of the best shooting in England.

You can create your own little world or, for ultimate privacy, be Lord and Lady for the day with exclusive use of the whole hotel. Make yourself at home and dance the night away before rejuvenating in the spa after a delicious Yorkshire breakfast.

Whatever your heart

desires

Your guests are our guests so we make sure that every single one has an unforgettable experience when they come to stay. Our spa is 5,000 square feet of feel good heaven where you can indulge in the latest treatments or just let go in the pool, the sauna or the steam.

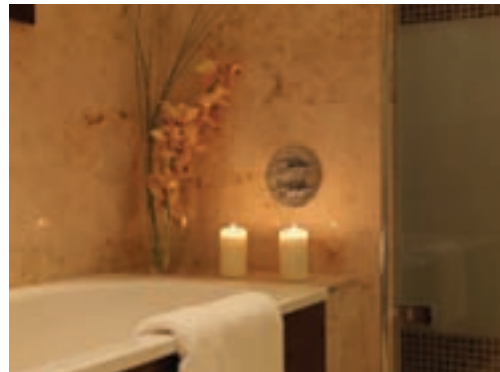

Country pursuits, such as shooting and fishing, will keep the more adventurous occupied. And if your guests find the time to explore all 80 acres of woodland, coastline and moors then the golf course and pretty harbour of Whitby are right on our doorstep.

Utterly uncompromising, our beautifully designed bedrooms are everything a bride and her groom could wish for. From the sumptuous Penthouse with flat screen TV, private terrace and hot tub to our Private Residences and Suites.

After all the excitement of getting married, a soft billowing bed with luxury cotton linen is just what you need. Or join us the night before the big day and relax in the spa before treating yourself to a night of self-indulgence, room service and hours upon hours of heavenly beauty sleep.

Sleeping

Beauty

With fine, fresh and locally sourced food at their finger tips, our chefs are furnished with the best possible ingredients to create a very special kind of food experience for you and your guests. The historic harbour of Whitby gives us succulent prawns, juicy haddock, tender plaice and meaty crab. Local game is easy to source and crisp, crunchy vegetables are never far away.

When it comes to designing your bespoke wedding menu, we ask you to join our head chef to explore the culinary possibilities. He will then create a perfectly balanced feast that is fit for a King and his Queen. You and four guests will then be invited back to Raithwaite Hall where you can taste every delicious morsel and meet our Sommelier for an exclusive wine tasting.
